

ST044 - Introduction to Child Development

This course is a in-depth study of the effective application of management and supervisory procedures in early childhood programs. Topics include the unique role and responsibility of the director; licensing and other regulatory requirements; administrative structure and governance. The course also covers budgeting, staff selection, program operation, policies and procedures, marketing, program assessment, and professional development.

Letter Grade, Pass/No Pass

3 units

Prerequisites: None

Prerequisites: None

Prerequisites: None

Transferable to CS only