This skills development course offers students the means to learn and apply speed-building techniques through highly-structured instructor-facilitated stenographic machine writing and/or voice writing practice tailored to individual skill level in an inclusive and supportive environment. Students are invited to learn and apply deliberate practice components including motivation, preexisting knowledge, immediate informative feedback, and repetition for skill reinforcement and development to increase writing speed and accuracy in the 80-140 words-per-minute speed range.

Satisfactory Progress

0

24 – 27,   24 – 27

None
None
NCCC 003

Not transferable