ENGL 006B: World Literature 2

This course surveys and compares literature from around the world produced between 1650 and the present. This course emphasizes literature outside the Anglo-American tradition. Students have the opportunity to analyze and compare texts representing various genres from different cultural regions, including Africa, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, Latin America, Australia, and the Pacific Islands. Through this crosscultural study of literature, students have the opportunity to engage in thinking critically about cultural diversity and related issues—such as global migration and the impact of globalization on local cultures.
